

Will You Be Here This December?

Will you be here this December with all your fam'ly and friends?
Will you wrap us in love and hugs, hoping it never ends?

all: If you're not here this December, we hope that you will know
we will be there beside you wherever you may go.

Will you be here for the sunrise, sharing the day as it starts?
Ev'ry moment we have with you stays right here in our hearts.

If you're not here this December, we hope that you will know
we will be there beside you wherever you may go.

We will be there beside you wherever you may go.

WINTER AGAIN

Winter is my fav'rite season.

There are some who don't agree.

When it snows, that's when I'm happy.

It's as simple as can be.

In the cold, in the snow is where I want to be,
so let there be no doubt!

You can keep all the heat and give me frosty air.

Oh, you won't see me pout!

Take a cue from the polar bears

who know how to have fun!

'Cause it's winter! It's winter again!

Penguins have the right idea,
gracing the Antarctic ice.

Summer's fine, but not forever.

Winter can be very nice!

In the cold, in the snow is where I want to be,
so let there be no doubt!

You can keep all the heat and give me frosty air.

Oh, you won't see me pout!

Take a cue from the polar bears

who know how to have fun!

'Cause it's winter! It's winter again!

It's winter!

It's winter!

It's winter!

It's winter again!

part 1:

It's winter!

It's winter!

It's winter!

It's winter again!

part 2 (optional):

Snow and ice. Winter freeze. Arctic air. Chilly breeze.

Really cold. Snowball fight. Bundle up so very tight.

Temperature going down. Slushy snow is all around.

Blizzard like. Shades of gray. Take another snow day!
